Dear Aishwarya,

As per FCC's requirements, there is no requirement to file for a class 1 permissive change. As long as t

§2.1043 Changes in certificated equipment.

(1) A Class I permissive change includes those modifications in the equipment which do not degrade the ch:
filing is required for a Class I permissive change.

Therefore, there is no action required from a TCB in this case of a class 1 permissive change.
